

In-person Event
Includes Group Discussions

Diversity & Inclusion Seminar For Students and Graduate Students "Understanding Unconscious Bias and Exploring Methods of Communication that Respect Diversity"

Seminar Content

- Understanding the communication biases hidden in everyday life.
- How to become aware of your own and others' "mental quirks," and exploring the attitudes necessary to suppress prejudice and discrimination.
- Considering what we can do now to change the current situation.

Dr. Aya Murayama
Associate Professor, College of Comprehensive Psychology, Ritsumeikan University

Areas of Expertise: Social Psychology Publications:

- "How to Notice Your 'Mental Quirks': Insights from Social Psychology" (Chikuma Shobo),
- "Let's Try It! An Introduction to Empirical Research: Enjoy Collecting, Analyzing, and Reporting Psychological and Behavioral Data" (Nakanishiya Publishing), among others

Before speaking or sharing information, take a moment to pause and pay attention to your emotional state and thought patterns!

<https://forms.office.com/r/Rs6Zp4N0CB>

16:30 - 18:00 Date/Time:
Friday, 15, November, 2024

Venue: Building H, 3F H344
Osaka Ibaraki Campus (OIC)

Apply from this QR
code or URL

Deadline
11/6 (Wed)

Let's think about how we can make the world a more livable place for everyone!

*Please note that the lectures and group work for this seminar will be conducted in Japanese. If Japanese is not your native language, please indicate your level of proficiency in conversational Japanese on the registration form.

Inquiries: diver-i@st.ritsumei.ac.jp
Office of Diversity and Inclusion Promotion