

This seminar will be held in person and will include group work.

"Exploring Communication for Mutual Respect and Collaboration" – Experiencing the Challenges and Insights of Dialogue and Consensus Building Through Games –

1. Seminar Content

- Understand the backgrounds that lead to differences in opinions (such as generation, culture, and individual differences).
- Recognize unconscious biases that may influence your own judgments and behavior.
- Experience the process of building consensus with others through dialogue.
- Develop the ability to collaborate and solve problems within diverse value systems.
- Enhance communication skills that can be applied in both university life and future professional settings.

2. Overview

- Date and Time : Friday, December 5, 2025, 16:45–18:15
- Venue: Keigakukan Building, Room KG106, 1st Floor, Kinugasa Campus
- Eligibility: Undergraduate and graduate students of Ritsumeikan
- Seminar participant count: Approximately 30
- ※participants Note: The lecture will be conducted in Japanese. Handouts will be provided in both Japanese and English.

3. Lecturer

Jiro Muroya

Director, Heartquake Inc.

He plans and conducts participatory and experiential training programs using business games for companies, local governments, and educational institutions. His programs are designed to promote awareness among participants, focusing on themes such as consensus building, communication, and team building.

4. Application Method

Please apply using the designated online form.

[Insert link or QR code here if applicable]

<https://forms.office.com/r/T9IjjbBxgH>

Application Deadline: By 5:00 PM on Thursday, November 20, 2025

*If you require any special arrangements such as specific seating or assistance with venue navigation, please contact us with the details of your request at the email address listed under "Contact Information" by Wednesday, November 26. We will review your request and do our best to accommodate your needs.

Inquiries: diver-i@st.ritsumei.ac.jp
Office of Diversity and Inclusion Promotion